DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

This action is in response to amendment filed 8/9/2007, wherein claims 1-5 have been amended and claims 6-18 have been added.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Takemoto et al. (US Patent 5,941,774).

Claims 1, 6: Takemoto et al. disclose a gaming machine comprising of a cabinet having a front opening in the cabinet, a transparent plate disposed to close the front opening (figure 1 and col. 4: 48-60). Takemoto et al. also discloses a plurality of counter displays including display sections for displaying numerical values changing according to a state of a game (col. 5: 11-19). Takemoto et al. also discloses of a container, disposed within the cabinet for accommodating plurality of counter displays such that the display sections has an open end opposite to the transparent plate (figure 1, the container that contains multiple display sections 103, 104 and 106). Takemoto et al. inherently discloses of a rear lid for pressing and supporting the plurality of displays behind the front side of the cabinet and opposite to the transparent plate.

Art Unit: 3714

Claims 2, 3, 9, 10, 13, 14, 16, 17: Takemoto et al. discloses a rear lid that comprises of an absorber on a surface opposing the plurality of counter displays, which are arranged in a row (figure 1, 103-104, 106, wherein the display is being pushed from the opposing end to make it more visible).

Claim 4: Takemoto et al. discloses a projection protruding outwardly to the front side of the cabinet (figure 1, display 110 which is protruding to the front side), and wherein the front opening is disposed below the projection (figure 1) and wherein the wherein the display section displays a numerical value to be provided to the player (figure 1, 103-104 and 106 which are located below the projection).

Claims 5, 11, 15, 18: Takemoto et al. inherently discloses the container is detachably attached to the cabinet (figure 1, wherein the container needs to be attached to the cabinet to prevent it from moving around).

Claim 7: Takemoto et al. discloses of an opening located below the projection (figure 1, element 103-106, which are openings for switches located below the main projection 101).

Claims 8, 12: Takemoto et al. discloses of the projection including a control panel oblique to the front side of the cabinet and including a plurality of operating buttons for operating the gaming machine (figure 1)

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 8/9/07 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Art Unit: 3714

With regards to the applicant's arguments, see rejection above. Wherein all of the claims have been rejected, including the new added claims 6-18; consequently the rejection is maintained.

Response to Arguments

Examiner has cited particular columns and line numbers in the references as applied to the claims above for the convenience of the applicant. Although the specified citations are representative of the teachings in the art and are applied to the specific limitations within the individual claim, other passages and figures may apply as well. It is respectfully requested from the applicant, in preparing the responses, to fully consider the references in entirety as potentially teaching all or part of the claimed invention, as well as the context of the passage as taught by the prior art or disclosed by the examiner.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
